

Nitzan Zehavi

Strategy and Research | 2nd year strategy and decision making - honors track

✉ notzo137@gmail.com ☎ +972545582373 📍 Tel Aviv 📅 13.07.1998 🌐 Nitzan Zehavi

Education

- 2nd year student, bachelor's degree in government, Strategy and decision making honors track, Lauder school of government, Reichman University. 2022 – present
Majoring in the Data, Government, and Democracy honors program
- Complete matriculation certificate, majoring in Geography and Water Sport - included practical studying and theoretical studying of anatomy, "Hadash" high school, Herzliya. 2013 – 2016

Professional Experience

- Consulting Analyst- Student position, Frost & Sullivan 10.2023 – present
Supporting research activities, engaging with top tier clients and working on consulting projects
- Intern, Frost & Sullivan 08.2023 – 10.2023
- Surfing instructor at the Gazebo Beach Club Surfing and Sailing Club. 2015 – 2017
Working with children and adults as part of camps, events, and classes. The position required high communication skills, patience, and great responsibility.

Military Service- discharge as first lieutenant.

- Training development team officer, Border Protection School 2021
Development of training systems, an educational knowledge center for division head, and management of the organizational knowledge.
- Operations Officer, unit 636. 2020
Participation and control over operational processes and operational activities, management of the Battalion commander schedule, management of the unit graph, summaries of meetings and distribution of instructions, coordination with other units and divisions, and preparation of presentations and materials for visits and meetings.
- Second role, as a Platoon commander in the Combat Intelligence Collection Corps- A platoon of about 60 soldiers and commanders. 2019
- First role, as a Platoon commander in the Combat Intelligence Collection Corps- A platoon of about 40 soldiers and commanders. 2018

Languages and skills

Hebrew
Native

English
Fluent

Officer programs
Full Control

Research skills
highly proficient